

FREE FILMMAKER PANELS ON SATURDAY MORNING

Two Panel Discussions will be presented on Saturday, October 3th at the Journey Museum in the theater. Both panels will be hosted by Lawyer & Emmy-nominate News Anchor/Executive Producer/Reporter Alicia Garcia of KOTA TERRITORY NEWS.

DOCUMENTING HISTORY & NATURE 60 minutes

This panel discusses the challenges, tips and tricks to making great documentaries about History or Nature including working with animals in their natural environment. We will explore how film functions as a primary historical record, is a tool for collective memory, and is an active method for depicting the past.

10:00AM - 11:00AM Panel Session I

Panelists include filmmakers from some of our documentary films

COURAGE and CONVICTION 50 minutes

This panel focuses on what it takes for an Independent filmmaker to bring their vision or passion to the screen. The panel highlights deep stories of moral, historical, cultural and civic resilience emphasizing bravery and character.

11:10AM - 12:00PM Panel Session II

Panelists include filmmakers from some of our films that represent Courage and Conviction
